COVID-19 Vaccine Rollout

Late December 2020-March 2021

- High demand for the vaccine
- Limited vaccine supply for first 2.5 months
- Very few enrolled vaccine providers early on; notable increase in enrollment February 2021
- Sector- & age-based approach
- State and federal vaccine programs operating in the County
- Vaccine delivered mainly through drive-thru, curbside, travel clinics
- Collective effort between governmental and non-governmental agencies to reach the more vulnerable and underserved communities
- State and local education & communication campaigns deployed

COVID-19 Vaccine Rollout

April 2021- Present

- Demand for the vaccine not as high
- Sufficient supply
- Vaccine eligibility opens up to 16+
- Continue to deploy strategies to reach the most vulnerable and communities that may have limited access to services
- Shifting to indoor clinics due to the warm weather
- Appointment and walk-in services
- Ongoing collective effort, working with additional partners (community-based organizations, schools, faith-based organizations, and others)
- New education & communication campaigns and strategies deployed

How do I get a vaccine appointment?

My Turn

Check myturn.ca.gov or call (833) 422-4255 to get a COVID-19 vaccine appointment. If appointments are not available, you can sign up to be notified when they are.

Go to My Turn

VaccineFinder

Some local health authorities have additional vaccination appointments. Use the CDC's VaccineFinder to find an appointment near you.

Go to VaccineFinder

You can also check with your healthcare provider or local pharmacy.

The COVID-19 vaccine is here. And everyone in California will get a turn.

Safe, free, and effective COVID-19 vaccines are now available to everyone age 16 and up. Let's end this pandemic. Check for available appointments and book your vaccination as soon as you can.

Just follow these easy steps:

Answer a few questions, choose a location, then select a date & time.

If no appointments are available in your area, register and we'll notify you when more appointments open up.
